

Teaching Scholars Summer Institute

June 1 - June 5, 2015

Morgantown, WV

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- Promote excellence in teaching and scholarship in teaching.
- Enhance leadership in teaching and learning.
- Promote and develop teaching modalities.
- Become more learner-centered.
- Discuss the importance of assessment in academics and differentiate among different types of assessment.

The TARGET AUDIENCE includes health sciences faculty of all levels from Medicine, Pharmacy, Dentistry, Nursing, Public Health and allied health professionals, the modules for the program include:

- Philosophy of education
- Learning styles and strategies
- Scholarship in education
- Information technology
- Leadership in education
- Assessment

The Teaching Scholars Summer Institute will combine online material, presentations, and discussion with outstanding faculty members.

SIMULATION CERTIFICATE COURSE:

*For 2015 we will also offer a second certificate during the week long conference which is the “Basics in Simulation.” The additional fee for this program is $500.00; please see our website for more information.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Visit our website at <http://www.hsc.wvu.edu/Faculty-Development/Teaching-Scholars-Summer-Institute> or contact Gwendolyn Marshall, MSIR, Faculty Development, Program Coordinator Senior, at (304) 293-5266 or gmarshall@hsc.wvu.edu. Attendees are required to attend all sessions through Friday, June 5, 2015. The fee is $1,500.00 per participant; if 4 or more faculty attend from one institution the cost will be $1,000.00 per person. Early bird registration is $1,200.00 per person by Friday, April 8, 2015; after that the fee is $1,500.00 per participant. There is an additional $500.00 per participant fee for the Simulation Track.